Description

A beautifully styled and superbly presented 1930s semi-detached family home, set within an impressive plot of approximately 1/5 of an acre. Enjoying far-reaching views across the North Downs, this exceptional property offers excellent potential to extend, with previously granted (now lapsed) planning permission for a two-storey extension—making it an ideal long-term family home.

Ideally positioned in a highly sought-after cul-de-sac in the heart of Penenden Heath, the area boasts a range of convenient local amenities, including shops for everyday essentials. Residents can also take advantage of excellent recreational facilities on the Heath, such as tennis and bowls, along with scenic countryside walks, a children’s play area, and a pre-school.

Location

This quiet cul-de-sac in Penenden Heath enjoys a good range of local amenities including shops providing for everyday needs, recreational facilities on the Heath including tennis, bowls, together with numerous countryside walks, children's play area and pre-school. Educationally the area is well served with the local Northborough, St Paul's and Sandling Schools, catering for infants and juniors. Maidstone town centre which maybe accessed by a regular bus service on the Boxley Road is some one mile distant and offers a more comprehensive selection of amenities including two museums, theatre, County library, multi-screen cinema and two railway stations connected to London. There are excellent selection facilities at the Mall and Fremlins Walk and a wider selection of schools and colleges for older children in and around the town centre including Valley Park School and a number of grammar schools. The M20/M2/M25 and M26 motorways are also close by and offer direct vehicular access to both London and the Channel Ports.
