Set in one of Sóller's most desirable locations, this magnificent property offers a rare combination of complete peace, impressive open views of the Serra de Tramuntana and an excellent orientation that ensures sunshine throughout the year.

Just a few minutes' walk from the village's main square, the house has the feeling of being immersed in nature, surrounded by orange trees and the most iconic landscape of the Sóller valley. From almost every corner of the property, there are spectacular panoramic views of the mountains, creating a setting of exceptional beauty and serenity.

The plot, measuring approximately 770 m², has been designed to make the most of outdoor living. Its generous terraces, gardens and relaxation areas allow the Mediterranean climate to be enjoyed throughout the seasons. The swimming pool blends beautifully into its surroundings and offers an ideal place to unwind in privacy while taking in the views.

The spacious covered porch becomes a true extension of the house, providing shade in summer and a welcoming space for family gatherings or evenings with friends all year round. The outdoor kitchen and barbecue area make long al fresco meals easy to enjoy in a truly special setting.

The house retains valuable traditional features, including natural stone walls with more than three centuries of history, giving the property character and authenticity. Inside, the rooms are bright and inviting. The generous open-plan kitchen connects naturally with the terraces and garden, while the living room, with its fireplace, offers a warm and comfortable atmosphere during the cooler months.

The first floor comprises three spacious double bedrooms and a large family bathroom. Several of the bedrooms enjoy beautiful views of the surrounding landscape, while the private terrace of one of them provides the perfect spot from which to watch the sunrise over the mountains.

A charming property with privacy and exceptional views, ideal both as a permanent residence and for enjoying extended stays in one of Mallorca's most sought-after corners.
