GARDEN

The house is set in attractive landscaped land extending to over half an acre. The garden has extensive lawns, deep, well-stocked borders, vegetable and cut-flower beds, and a variety of mature trees.

A patio area, accessed from the sitting and dining rooms, offers stunning valley views. A second terrace from the kitchen and utility room provides a perfect setting for alfresco dining, complete with outdoor lighting.

Parking is provided for several vehicles alongside a double-width and length integral garage and a Dutch barn-style shed for storage.

This exceptional home seamlessly blends modern living with a peaceful, rural setting, making it ideal for families seeking space, style, and privacy.

The property features roof-mounted solar panels, generating electricity for use and export to the National Grid, with index-linked Feed-in Tariff payments guaranteed for 25 years from 2010. For the year 2024, the solar panels generated an income of c. £2,000.
