£129,950

This attractively bijou cottage is tucked away within central Ryde. Its almost equidistant to the town centre shops and the beach hugging the coastline of this seaside town. It is positioned adjacent to the local tennis club and conveniently it is right next to a long stay car park too. The property is well presented having seen some recent improvements including some replacement double glazed windows, a new roof in 2024, decoration and remedial works. Although modest in size it makes for wonderfully cosy home or even a holiday pad or weekend retreat. All of Ryde's amenities will be at your beck and call which include among their ranks a comprehensive range of retail shops, restaurants, bars, coffee shops and essentials such as supermarkets. Along the nearby Esplanade are the best selection of travel options which the Island has to offer, including, a train station, bus station, taxi rank, passenger fastcat to Portsmouth and a hovercraft connection to Southsea. The smart interior is ready for the new owner to simply take up occupation or start using as a well placed holiday pad to escape to.
