Welcome to Wymondham Road, Bunwell. Step through the smart porch and into a bright, welcoming living room, warmed by a recently installed woodburner - ideal for cosy winter working days and relaxed evenings in. Next door, the separate dining room (with exposed beam and a charming serving hatch) gives you that flexible “work/host/live” layout: offering space to spread out, work with the kettle nearby, or entertain without everything happening in one room.

The kitchen is a real highlight - well-proportioned, packed with storage and extensive worktops (perfect for anyone who cooks between calls), with integrated appliances and a handy rear lobby plus cloakroom. It's the kind of everyday practicality that makes everyday life feel effortless and is hard to come by in a property of this era: space for parcels, coats, and muddy boots or trainers.

Upstairs you'll find two double bedrooms - with the front room enjoying far-reaching field views - plus a light-filled bathroom with skylight. And then there's the converted attic room: bright, versatile, and brilliantly suited to a dedicated home office, hobby space, or gaming room, with eaves storage, front and back to keep everything tidy and out of sight.

Outside, the westerly-facing garden is a genuine retreat - tranquil, private-feeling, and finished with a large sandstone patio that's made for after-work BBQs and alfresco meals. At the far end, you'll find a gate through to a generous carport (2-3 vehicles) and a timber-framed workshop with light and power - ideal for side projects, bike storage, or a keen DIYer setup.

And while it feels wonderfully tucked away, you're still well-positioned for commuting: Wymondham and Attleborough are both within a 12-minute drive, offering reliable rail links onwards to Norwich, Cambridge and London, with Diss also an option for faster services.

If you're looking for a calm, characterful home that supports a comfortable work-from-home lifestyle - with countryside on the doorstep and rail within easy reach - book your viewing today.
