Directions

On the A361, from Braunton proceed to Ilfracombe and after about 6 miles at Mullacott Cross Roundabout, take the first exit left onto the B3343 road as though to Woolacombe. Pass by the Combes Golf Park and after just after taking the right turn to Lincombe, where follow the country lane. You will pass over the Tarka Cycle track/footpath on the old Ilfracombe Railway line and then the Coastal Kennels to the right. As you drop down the hill thereafter and just over a mile from the main road, take a left turn into what essentially appears to be the entrance to Lower Campscott. in fact, Dibbons Lane. Follow the concrete track down between the Devon Banks and as you come to the end of the Devon Bank, to the left hand side is a wire fence with an immediate gateway which is the entrance to the field that is for sale. Overview

Set with views over fields and coastal scenery down to the Bristol Channel and beyond.

This single field of pastureland is set in the coastal belt between the B3343 between Mullacott Cross on the A361 Barnstaple to Ilfracombe main road and the coastal resort of Woolacombe to the west and enjoys views over the dramatic coastal scenery above Lee Bay, between Woolacombe and Ilfracombe.

The field has shared access over a single track lane from the public highway near Lincombe which is on the road down to Lee Bay.

The land has not been grazed properly for some time.

There is a public footpath running along inside the eastern boundary.

NOTE - the sale of this land is not connected with Lower Campscott in any way.
