Property Description

This unique four-bedroom semi-detached house, once home to The Potters Arms pub has been beautifully transformed to retain its original charm across three floors. The property is available with no onward chain and offers a welcoming living room, a spacious kitchen and dining area with French doors that open onto a private courtyard garden, a utility room, and a versatile room that could serve as an office or additional bedroom, along with a convenient downstairs WC.

On the first floor, the main bedroom features an en-suite bathroom, alongside a second double bedroom, a family bathroom, and a south-facing glass balcony with lovely views over the nearby water.

The top floor offers a further double bedroom with an en-suite and a Juliet balcony, which also takes in scenic water views.

Outside, the property boasts a driveway with space for two cars, and the rear courtyard is beautifully landscaped with a combination of patio slabs and gravel, creating a low-maintenance outdoor space.

Located just a short walk from Poole town centre and Poole Quay, this home is ideally placed for those seeking a peaceful setting with easy access to local amenities. Poole Quay is a hub of activity with a variety of restaurants, cafes, and shops, making it the perfect spot to enjoy waterfront living.

Families will appreciate the proximity to local schools, including Hamworthy Park Junior School and St. Michael's CE VA Primary School. With public transport links and excellent access to Poole Harbour and beyond, this property offers the perfect blend of convenience and tranquillity, whether for permanent residence or as a charming holiday home.

The best way to fully appreciate everything on offer here and avoid the disappointment of moving out is via an internal viewing.
