NEW! Situated in a popular residential location, this detached bungalow occupies a generous, level plot with gardens to the front and rear, convenient side access, a driveway providing parking for several vehicles and a garage. The accommodation comprises a central hallway with built-in storage and loft access, a bright dual-aspect lounge with a fireplace and gas fire, and a well-appointed kitchen offering ample storage, a breakfast bar and space for appliances. There are three bedrooms, including two doubles and a single, with the second bedroom benefiting from patio doors opening onto the rear garden. A separate WC and an adjacent bathroom complete the accommodation. Further benefits include gas central heating, double glazing and no onward chain, making this an appealing opportunity for buyers seeking a detached bungalow with generous outdoor space.
