NEW! A detached single-storey bungalow in a highly desirable residential location, occupying a generous and private plot, set well back from the road and adjoining neighbouring gardens with fields beyond. The property has been extended to provide well-proportioned accommodation, including an impressive dual-aspect lounge/dining room with fireplace and gas fire, patio doors opening onto the rear garden and views towards Black Combe on the horizon. There is also a fitted kitchen, three good-sized bedrooms, bathroom and a boarded loft providing useful additional space. Double glazing and central heating are installed. Requiring comprehensive refurbishment internally and significant clearance and landscaping externally, the property offers excellent potential for improvement and enhancement in a peaceful and potentially private setting. Offered for sale with no upper chain.
