Double doors open to the drawing room, strategically designed to capture natural light from all angles with its numerous windows and French doors opening to the garden terrace.

The family room, adjacent to the kitchen, offers both spaciousness and cosiness, featuring French doors to the garden terrace, ample built-in cupboards, exquisite engineered oak flooring, and shelves for storage and display. Adjacent to this, the study provides an ideal space for remote work.

The kitchen, meticulously designed by Kitchen Elegance, showcases ivory painted solid wood cabinets, a larder, dresser, and island, all complemented by blue pearl granite and beech block work surfaces. Cooking is a delight with a four-oven blue Aga, traditional ivory painted plate rack, and a Rangemaster range-style cooker. Completing this level is a delightful conservatory, offering a tranquil space to enjoy garden views stretching towards the New Forest and the Isle of Wight.

Ascending the staircase to the first-floor landing, you'll find 4 bedrooms (two with en-suites) and a family bathroom.

The main bedroom suite has a balcony and large French doors, allowing you to wake up to stunning views each morning. The positioning of the bed even allows for open doors in the summer, inviting in the breeze and sounds of the forest. From this vantage point, the owners have enjoyed sightings of native ponies, deer, and a variety of birds. The impressive main bedroom suite features double doors leading to an inner lobby with built-in wardrobes and a dressing area with twin wardrobes. The luxurious en-suite bathroom is a sanctuary with mosaic tiled floors, painted wood panelling, and a freestanding roll-top bath nestled in an alcove.
