

Grove Court 37-39 The Drive

Hove, BN3 3JG

Asking price £380,000

A spacious two bedroom purpose built apartment together with a wide sunny west facing balcony enjoying superb elevated views across the City towards the sea occupying a prime central location close to all amenities.

Grove Court is a highly regarded modern purpose built apartment block which is ideally located in a sought after central location being within a short level walk of all City centre amenities including Hove mainline station and Church Road with its huge range of shops, bars, cafes and restaurants. The seafront and esplanade is within a short stroll too. This property is situated on the eighth floor and enjoys some truly stunning far reaching elevated views over the City and coastline from the apartment itself and particularly the wide balcony which takes full advantage of the sunny westerly aspect. The property is light airy and spacious with a good size living room opening on to the balcony, two double bedrooms and a well fitted kitchen. The apartment also has the benefit of a private garage together with the opportunity to purchase another garage in a building opposite if desired and there is no chain involved with the sale.
