Upon approach, the property is welcomed by a small front garden and an attractive timber porch, leading into a light glass entrance vestibule-setting the tone for the character found within. The ground floor hallway is a warm and inviting space, providing access to the principal rooms and upper floors, with space for coats and footwear. There is also a useful understairs storage cupboard housing the electricity consumer unit, along with a convenient cloakroom fitted with a WC and wash hand basin.

To the left, the open-plan living and dining area is a standout feature of the home. The living space is bathed in natural light from an impressive bay window to the front aspect. A feature fireplace with a gas fire, wooden mantel and tiled hearth creates a focal point, complemented by alcoves to either side. An elegant archway leads through to the dining area with French windows which offers access to the rear garden - ideal for both everyday living and entertaining.

The kitchen is located to the rear and is fitted with a range of wall and base units. It features a Bosch induction hob with a concealed extractor above, along with an integrated double oven and grill. A double sink and drainer sit beneath a side aspect window, and there is space for a fridge freezer. A door leads through to the utility room, which is fitted with additional units, a sink, plumbing for a washing machine and space for a dryer. This room also houses the Vaillant gas boiler and enjoys a rear aspect window overlooking the garden, with direct access outside.

On the first floor, the landing leads to two bedrooms, a separate WC, a linen cupboard and the family bathroom. Bedroom one is a generous double with a front aspect window featuring decorative upper panels and views over Kendal, along with a small adjoining storage space. Bedroom two is another double, overlooking the rear garden and benefits from a wash hand basin. The separate WC includes a side window for natural light. The linen cupboard provides excellent storage and houses the hot water cylinder. The bathroom is fitted with a panelled bath with overhead shower and handheld attachment, wash hand basin, heated towel rail and part-tiled walls, with a rear aspect window.

Stairs rise to the second floor, where a bright stairwell features a built-in shelf and a Velux roof light. Bedroom four is a double room with a rear dormer window. Bedroom three is a generously sized double with a front aspect dormer window enjoying far-reaching views over Kendal and the fells beyond. This room was previously used as an artist's studio, the room also includes a base unit with integrated sink and drainer. A further storage cupboard on the upper landing adds to the home's practicality.

Externally, the west-facing rear garden is a charming and low-maintenance space, with paved areas, flower beds and steps leading to a slightly raised seating area, perfect for a patio set.
