A CHARACTERFUL HOME ARRANGED OVER THREE LEVELS...

Positioned on Pump Hollow Lane in Mansfield, this three-bedroom property offers a distinctive layout set across lower ground, middle and first floors, creating a sense of separation and well-defined living spaces.

The home can be entered via a porch on the lower ground floor, leading into a hallway that provides access to a useful store room and the garage, ideal for storage or secure parking. Stairs rise to the middle floor, where the main living accommodation is located.

The living room sits at the heart of the home on the middle floor and is positioned to the front elevation. With a feature fireplace and generous window, this space provides a comfortable setting for relaxing and entertaining. From the hallway, the kitchen is positioned to the rear, offering a functional layout with fitted units, work surfaces and space for appliances, complemented by natural light from the rear window. Built-in cupboards on this level add to the practicality of the space.

The first floor is dedicated to bedroom accommodation, offering three bedrooms that can adapt to a variety of needs, from family living to guest rooms or home working. The bathroom serves the floor and includes additional storage via an airing cupboard.

Externally, the front of the property features a lawned garden with a pathway, enclosed for privacy, while the garage provides valuable additional space to the rear.

A well-laid-out home in a convenient location, offering flexibility and character throughout. Viewing is recommended to appreciate the layout and potential on offer.
