

Beechwood Road, Litherland

£105,000 EPC Rating D Council Tax A

 3  1  1

Much improved throughout, this two/three bedroom mid row home definitely has that 'drop in your furniture' feel, especially as it has been completely redecorated inside the house and outside too. Being sold with no chain, this home really does appeal to both first time buyers and investors too. Located in a popular residential area, this home benefits from excellent transport links, highly rated local schools, and a range of amenities just a short walk away. Interior: entrance, vestibule, living/dining space, kitchen and bathroom. Upstairs are two good sized bedroom and a further room which would be great for an office or nursery. Complete with uPVC double glazing, gas central heating and new gutters and downspouts. To the exterior is a courtyard area. Viewing is a must!
