GUIDE PRICE £249,000

Tucked away in a quiet position on the fringes of the village, with an attractive open view across The Howe and moorland, 4 Ashfield Road is a charming Grade II Listed period cottage.

The cottage has been restored with sensitivity and flair, successfully blending modern comforts and original character features. Improvements include a new and efficient electric central heating system, underfloor heating to the kitchen flag stone floor, upgraded insulation where possible and newly fitted floor coverings throughout. The kitchen and shower rooms have been re-fitted with high quality finishes and fixtures, resulting in a turnkey home ready for immediate occupation.

The stylishly presented accommodation amounts to 511 square feet in total, which briefly comprises: a dual aspect living room with multifuel burning stove and to the rear is the well specified breakfast kitchen with a door leading out to the sheltered, courtyard rear garden. Upstairs are two bedrooms and the shower room, making the property ideally suited to couples, downsizers or holiday letting.

To the rear is an enclosed, private and very sheltered cobbled courtyard garden, with an access around to Ashfield Road.

LOCATION

Castleton is a picturesque moorland village nestling in a fold of the northern escarpment of the North York Moors National Park and is located some 10 miles south of Guisborough and 15 miles west of Whitby. The village, together with neighbouring Danby, provides a wide range of local amenities and is a vibrant and active rural community. Amenities within the village include a large general store, independent food store, two public houses, parish church, children's playground, outdoor bowling club, cricket club, and railway station. Local primary school rated as Outstanding by Ofsted. Secondary education can be found close by in Whitby and Guisborough along with a larger range of amenities.
