Asking Price £325,000

Situated in the charming village of Mansel Lacy, Hereford, this Grade II listed black-and-white cottage offers a unique opportunity to combine traditional character with modernisation. The striking timber-framed exterior, with bold black beams set against crisp white infill panels, immediately conveys the property's historic charm and welcoming appeal. Inside, the cottage comprises two spacious reception rooms, perfect for both relaxing and entertaining. There are two well-proportioned bedrooms and a conveniently located bathroom, offering a practical layout for everyday living. While the property retains much of its original character, it would benefit from updating and modernisation, allowing the new owner to create a home perfectly suited to contemporary tastes. Externally, the property boasts a large wrap-around garden, providing a versatile outdoor space for gardening, recreation, or simply enjoying the tranquil surroundings. A double garage and additional outbuilding offer excellent storage or potential for further development, complementing the cottage's flexible living space.

Location

Located within the rolling Herefordshire countryside, Mansel Lacy offers a peaceful rural lifestyle while remaining within easy reach of the market town of Hereford. The area is renowned for its orchards, farmland, and scenic river valleys, providing a wealth of walking, cycling, and outdoor recreational opportunities. Local amenities, historic landmarks, and a strong sense of community combine to make this village setting both idyllic and welcoming, perfectly complementing the cottage's timeless charm.

Accommodation

In brief comprises:

Kitchen

The kitchen is fitted with matching wall and base units, complemented by a double oven and space for additional appliances. Dual-aspect windows and double doors opening onto the garden flood the space with natural light, creating a bright and inviting area for cooking and entertaining.

Dining room

The dining room features a fitted log burner, creating a cosy focal point, and benefits from a dual-aspect layout that fills the room with natural light. An external door provides direct access to the garden, seamlessly connecting indoor and outdoor living.

Living room

Flowing seamlessly from the dining room, the living room boasts a feature fireplace and dual-aspect windows that flood the space with natural light. Stairs rise to the first floor, enhancing the room's sense of openness and character.

Utility

The utility room is fitted with an oil-fired boiler, a useful sink, and space for additional appliances, providing practical and convenient support to the main living areas.

WC

The ground floor also includes a convenient WC, complete with a sink, providing practical facilities for residents and guests.

First floor

Bedroom one

The main double bedroom features dual-aspect windows and a Velux roof window, flooding the room with natural light. Fitted storage is thoughtfully integrated into the eaves, maximising space and practicality.

Dressing area

Leading into the main bedroom is a dedicated dressing area, offering ample space for fitted wardrobes and a dressing table, providing both practicality and a touch of luxury.

Bedroom two

The second, smaller double bedroom benefits from a side-facing window, providing natural light and a comfortable, versatile space.

Bathroom

The bathroom is fitted with a WC, sink, and a bath, providing a practical and functional family space.

Outside

The surrounding gardens form a peaceful retreat, gently rising from the cottage itself. Mature hedges offer seclusion from the main road, while the extensive gardens seem to stretch on indefinitely, eventually merging with charming apple orchards and neighbouring farmland. A driveway to the front provides easy access into the double garage, while the delightful outlook floods the area with light and space, offering wonderful potential for further enjoyment or enhancement.
