The Detail

The property is entered through a traditional timber front door, opening into a welcoming living room that immediately reflects the character and quality found throughout the home. A feature cast iron multi-fuel burner sits within a chimney recess on a quarry tiled hearth, creating an inviting focal point. Stripped wooden floorboards run underfoot, while a bay window with sash detailing fills the space with natural light. An open archway leads through to the dining room, allowing for an easy and sociable flow between the principal reception spaces.

The dining room retains its period charm with quarry tiled flooring, a recessed fireplace and a useful understairs storage cupboard. From here, stairs rise to the first floor, and access is provided into the beautifully crafted kitchen.

This bespoke handmade kitchen is fitted with solid wood work surfaces, chrome-handled cabinetry and a comprehensive range of integrated appliances, including an oven, hob, fridge freezer and dishwasher. Tiled splashbacks, built-in shelving and a stainless steel sink with extendable hose complete the space, while twin sash windows draw in excellent levels of daylight.

There is a passaged first floor landing with a beautiful high ceiling and with skylight roof window offering excellent natural light and the landing gives access to two double bedrooms, study and superb contemporary bathroom. The two well-proportioned double bedrooms are positioned to the front and rear, both featuring sash windows and original floorboards and built-in storage/wardrobes. A separate study provides an ideal workspace and has built in shelving. The bathroom is finished to a high standard, featuring a tiled in bath with rain shower, large wash hand basin with a panelled vanity unit, ceramic tiling and a chrome heated towel rail.

Externally, the delightful front garden has a south facing aspect and is arranged with paved seating areas and raised planting beds and a stone walled boundary. To the rear, a courtyard provides access to a useful store, outside WC and gated access onto William Street.
