Location:

Mevagissey is a picturesque fishing village nestled between Pentewan and Gorran Haven. The village is steeped in history with many quaint fishermen’s cottages set within cobbled streets. Local facilities include a primary school, an activity centre, small Mini Market, doctor’s surgery, chemist, various gift shops and several restaurants and public houses. The town of St Austell is approximately 6 miles away and offers a wide range of shopping, large supermarkets and recreational facilities. There is a mainline railway station and leisure centre together with primary and secondary schools. The charming port of Charlestown and the award-winning Eden Project are within a short drive, as is the world renowned Lost Gardens of Heligan.

Directions:

The property sits at the top of Tregoney Hill. As you head down the hill into Mevagissey, past the Willow car park on the left hand side, following the one way system onto Chapel Street, at the end turning onto Church Street, heading through the village towards Fore Street and Polkirt Hill. At the small mini roundabout in the centre, proceed past the Public House and Chemist on your right, then turn sharp right into Tregoney Hill. Proceed up Tregoney Hill, past the turning for Lamorick Close, near the top the property is the second bungalow on the right.
