ACCOMMODATION

Sitting room * Dining room * Kitchen * Cellarage * Two first floor bedrooms * Loft area * Family bathroom * Detached Barn * Courtyard and further walled garden *

THE PROPERTY

The property is entered via a cosy sitting room with oak flooring, brick built feature fireplace and small bay window to the front. To the rear a step leads up to the raised dining area, again with oak flooring, window to rear and door to the spacious cellarage, which is ideal for storage. To the rear of the property there is a cottage style kitchen with wall and base mounted units, granite worktops and door out to the rear courtyard garden. A turning staircase leads to the first floor accommodation comprising of two double bedrooms, with bedroom one having a spiral staircase leading to large carpeted loft area, which has built in storage and a window providing views over the village and towards the South Downs National Park. A delightful period bathroom with stand alone roll top bath, ornate stone topped wash hand basin, strip wood floor and separate shower cubicle completes the internal accommodation.

OUTSIDE

There is a small walled garden to the front with a metal gate and railings, and a gravelled side path with access to a large external store room, which also houses the boiler.

Immediately to the rear of the property is a small landscaped courtyard garden, and the neighbouring property has access rights to the path. Thereafter, is a charming private walled garden, mainly laid to lawn with established flower beds and borders, summer house and a detached barn.

AGENT'S NOTE

The barn had been granted planning for conversion previously which has since lapsed, though could be re-applied for. The barn itself is set on two levels with the top half previously being used as a garage as there is a lane to the rear of the barn and property.

PLEASE NOTE: THERE IS A SMALL AREA OF FLYING FREEHOLD TO THE REAR OF THE PROPERTY.
