MASELLA COUPE

Key features

Description

An exceptional semi-detached property, currently arranged as two fully self-contained apartments, offering an excellent investment opportunity with a potential combined rental income of £2,175 PCM (£1,100 and £1,075 respectively).

Alternatively, the property could easily be converted back into an attractive three-bedroom family home, benefiting from a generously sized garden. There is also further potential for development to the front of the property, subject to the necessary planning permissions (STPP).

Offering outstanding flexibility, this property is ideally suited to investors, developers or owner-occupiers looking for a home with additional potential.
