"We have absolutely loved living at Malago Drive. The Estate is a private, clean, quiet and safe little oasis filled with lovely people and families. We have extended the house twice to fulfil its full potential and love the bright and calm space. There is plenty of room for work, play and chill. I love the mornings in the downstairs extension drinking a coffee while my son plays and the sun pours in or watching the stars while having a bath upstairs in the loft conversion. Our home has been decorated to a high standard with a lot of love and character and is incredibly practical, low maintenance and comfortable. We also added privacy trees in the garden and spend many hours outside playing and gardening (when the rain stops!). It truly is a wonderful house that will we miss."
