Land at Highfields North, Walsall

Land at Highfields North

Walsall Wood

Walsall, WS9 9AL

44ac

The site extends to approximately 44 acres (17.84 hectares). The wider holding comprises a mix of mature woodland, open water and grassland, forming an attractive and predominantly natural landscape.

The site could be suitable for a range of development opportunities, subject to the necessary planning consents.

The Jockey Fields SSSI comprises c 12.94 hectares (32 acres) of the site being sold. This does not preclude using the land for grazing and livestock subject to consultation with Natural England. There is approximately 4.86 hectares (12 acres) of land in the northeast corner of the site, that is outside the SSSI and could be used for other development

Location:

The site is situated at Highfields North, Walsall Wood, within the West Midlands, positioned approximately 3 miles north of Walsall town centre and around 10 miles northwest of Birmingham city centre. The location benefits from direct access via Walsall Road (A461), which provides convenient connections to the surrounding highway network, including the A452 Chester Road and the M6 motorway approximately 5 miles to the southeast via Junctions 9 and 10.

Highfields North occupies an established suburban setting characterised by a mix of residential neighbourhoods, commercial premises and areas of open green infrastructure. The site benefits from proximity to local amenities within Walsall Wood and neighbouring centres such as Aldridge and Brownhills, while public transport connections are available along Walsall Road with rail services accessible from nearby Bloxwich and Walsall stations.

The surrounding area comprises a varied mix of residential development, light industrial and commercial occupiers, together with nearby recreational land and ecological assets. The wider area also benefits from established woodland and designated nature sites, including the Jockey Fields Site of Special Scientific Interest, contributing positively to the environmental character and landscape setting of the site.

Adjacent to the site is a Lidl Supermarket, which finished construction in 2025, highlighting the development potential of this site.
