Area

Dorchester town centre is a vibrant, historic market town in Dorset that seamlessly blends ancient Roman roots with a bustling modern high street. Characterised by its elegant Georgian architecture, leafy avenues, and pedestrian-friendly walks, the centre serves as a thriving hub for shopping, dining, and culture. The historic High Street and Cornhill feature a unique mix of independent boutiques and national brands. The town maintains its centuries-old trading tradition with a weekly market. The centre is uniquely bordered by the gorgeous, tree-lined pedestrian avenues built along the original lines of the Roman town walls—offering a quick escape into nature.
