With generous reception space, this three-bedroomed, terraced house has the potential to be the ideal first family home, allied with its excellent location that includes proximity to numerous amenities as well as schools catering for all age groups. The well-presented accommodation comprises an entrance porch, a good-sized living room, a kitchen with an open-plan flow into a dining room, a conservatory, three bedrooms and a family bathroom. Outside, there are low-maintenance gardens to both the front and the rear.

A path leads from Colenzo Drive through a front garden laid to gravel to the front door, which opens into a very useful entrance porch with a second front door opening into a good-sized front aspect living room. A door leads to the dining room at the rear of the ground floor, which has patio doors opening out to the conservatory, itself with French doors leading into the rear garden. There is an open-plan flow from the dining room to the kitchen, also with a rear aspect and with its own rear door accessing the rear garden. The kitchen includes a range of eye and base level cupboards and drawers with worksurfaces and tiled splashbacks along with space for a fridge freezer and space and plumbing for a washing machine and a tumble dryer.

The first floor provides three bedrooms, two of which are doubles. Each bedroom has either built-in or fitted wardrobe storage. The family bathroom at the rear of the first floor comprises a panelled bath and a separate recessed shower enclosure along with a WC, hand wash basin, and a heated towel rail, plus a fitted cupboard and fitted shelving. The rear garden is an attractive, low-maintenance space with a patio area adjacent to the rear of the property which extends to a path leading to gated rear access and a garden shed. On either side of the path are retained bark chipped beds.
