LOCATION

Ellerdine is a small rural hamlet in north-east Shropshire, surrounded by open farmland and attractive countryside views. The area offers access to a number of rural walking routes and bridleways, making it ideal for those who enjoy outdoor country living. The hamlet benefits from convenient road connections via the A442 and A53, providing straightforward travel toward Telford, Shrewsbury and Market Drayton. Local amenities include the well supported Ellerdine Village Hall, which hosts a variety of community events and activities throughout the year for residents and visitors alike. Nearby public houses include the traditional Royal Oak, locally known as "The Tiddy", a popular rural pub serving the local community and visitors to the area.

ACCOMMODATION

From the covered entrance porch, the front door opens into a spacious reception hall featuring limestone tiled flooring with underfloor heating, which continues through to the guest cloakroom and dining kitchen. From the hall, a turning staircase rises to the first floor, with useful understairs storage and access to the guest cloakroom/WC.

Glazed double doors lead into an impressive open plan dining kitchen enjoying a dual aspect. The kitchen is fitted with a range of bespoke solid wood base and wall cabinets together with a central island incorporating a breakfast bar with granite worktops over. Integrated features include an inset ceramic sink, Rangemaster cooker, dishwasher, and space for additional appliances. Adjacent to the kitchen is a practical utility room housing the air source heat pump control unit, with an additional sink and space for laundry appliances. A rear door provides direct access to the gardens. Across the hall is the lounge, which is laid with engineered oak flooring and benefits from underfloor heating. A large exposed brick fireplace with a cast iron log burning stove forms an attractive focal point. A window overlooks the front elevation, while French doors open onto the rear patio terrace. Leading off the lounge is a delightful garden room, also featuring limestone tiled flooring and underfloor heating. Windows and patio doors provide an abundance of natural light and enjoy attractive views across the gardens and surrounding countryside.

From the hall, the turning staircase rises to the first-floor landing, which benefits from a skylight and airing cupboard. The principal bedroom suite enjoys a dual aspect with far reaching views to the rear. The en-suite shower room is fitted with a white suite comprising a WC, wash hand basin, and corner shower enclosure. The first floor accommodation is completed by three further bedrooms, two of which benefit from built-in storage and are served by the family bathroom fitted with a white suite including a WC, wash hand basin, and panelled bath with shower over.

OUTSIDE

Accessed via a private lane, Heathcote is set back behind a generous gravelled driveway providing ample parking together with a detached double garage, which also has an EV charger.

Beautifully maintained lawned gardens extend to the front and wrap around to the rear of the property, bordered by colourful, well-established flower beds hosting a wide variety of ornamental shrubs and plants. To the rear, the gardens feature a paved patio terrace ideal for outdoor entertaining and are enclosed by post and rail fencing, extending into a small orchard with a selection of mature fruit trees. Within the grounds is a substantial 25ft timber store/outbuilding providing excellent storage space and potential for a variety of uses.

To the front of the property is an additional formal garden area which includes a productive vegetable patch. Beyond the gardens lie adjoining paddocks, which benefit from separate vehicular access, making the property particularly well suited for equestrian or smallholding use.
