The Lodge Granville Rise, Totland Bay

£435,000

This deceptively spacious, bright and appealing detached bungalow offers flexible accommodation on one level, with gardens surrounding the home, as well as a garage and driveway providing parking. Warmed by gas central heating and with double glazing, the home provides a large sitting room at the back; a good sized kitchen with a conservatory to one side and the flexibility of either three bedrooms with two bathrooms in the entirety of the bungalow, or the option to close off part of the home, giving you an annexe with a separate external entrance. This annexe then provides a sitting room; double bedroom; kitchenette area and shower room. The gardens are very natural, with a rolled stone patio area to the rear, providing a sunny seating area, as well as a summer house to one corner of the front garden- carefully placed to take advantage of the glorious Solent views and the sunsets.

The home is offered with no onward chain. Freehold. EPC D-68. Council Tax Band - E
