We are delighted to offer this well-presented first floor two double bedroom flat, situated within a gated development in the highly sought-after village of Tarring. Ideally positioned close to local shops, schools and transport links, the property enjoys a tucked-away setting within the popular Fair Oak Court development and benefits from gas-fired central heating, double glazing, a fitted kitchen and bathroom, and attractive communal surroundings.

Accessed via a private driveway just off Tarring High Street, this attractive apartment occupies a peaceful position within the popular Fair Oak Court development. The accommodation is well maintained throughout and features two generously sized double bedrooms, a fitted kitchen, a fitted bathroom, and comfortable living space suited to a range of buyers.

Residents benefit from well-kept communal grounds, while the secure gated setting provides an added sense of privacy. The property is conveniently located close to the shops, cafés and everyday amenities found along Rectory Road and Tarring High Street. Families are particularly well served, with Thomas A'Becket Infant School and Thomas A Becket Junior School both within easy walking distance.

A wider selection of shopping, leisure facilities and transport connections can be found in and around Worthing, with the town centre and seafront just a short drive away, making this an excellent opportunity for first-time buyers, downsizers and investors alike.
