MEACOCK & JONES

Set in a prime location in the centre of Shenfield, set back from the high street, is this recently decorated and smartly presented two bedroom ground floor apartment accessed via a secure entry phone system and offered for sale with no onward chain.

The spacious accommodation commences with a hallway offering plenty of storage space, leading through to the fantastic living room with central feature wood mantel fireplace. This room has lots of options for arranging your sofas and armchairs, plus the double french doors and large windows flood the room with natural light. The kitchen is fitted with modern gloss units at both low and eye level, plus some integrated appliances, and marble effect laminate work tops. The inner hallway leads to the bedrooms, both of which are good sized doubles, bedroom one having built in floor to ceiling wardrobes to one wall, bedroom two having a built in storage cupboard. The shower room is also of good size and has tiled walls and a walk in shower cubicle.

Externally there is a small patio area which overlooks the well maintained communal gardens and shopping Broadway, plus the parking bays in the forecourt of the apartments provide one permit parking space plus guest parking is available at a small charge. Shenfield mainline railway station is a stones throw away, and provides a fast and frequent service into London, along with the Elizabeth Line offering other alternatives including the very convenient link to Heathrow airport. There are plenty of excellent options for schooling in the area, at all levels from nursery right up to Senior School level.
