BRUNTON

RESIDENTIAL

Brunton Residential are thrilled to present The Beeches, an excellent period property offering superb accommodation throughout. The home boasts a stunning extended dual-aspect kitchen diner, spacious lounge, snug, and additional sitting room, five well-proportioned bedrooms, a family bathroom and en-suite. Externally, the property benefits from a double garage with driveway parking and extensive gardens.

This excellent, semi detached home is ideally located on the desirable Apperley Road, Stocksfield. Apperley Road, which is tucked just off from Cade Hill Road and New Ridley Road, is perfectly placed close to the Doctors Surgery, Pharmacy and other convenient services and leisure facilities. The property is located just a short walk from Stocksfield Railway Station, providing excellent links into Newcastle City Centre and throughout The Tyne Valley.

The property is also positioned close to the villages of Riding Mill, Corbridge and Hexham. Local schooling can be found within the village with further secondary schooling available in Hexham and independent schooling accessible by train. It's locality is situated near by attractive countryside and close to the local National Park.
