Description

A stylish and beautifully presented semi-detached bungalow, extensively modernised within the last two years.

This attractive home offers two generous double bedrooms, a west-facing walled garden, garage, and private driveway.

A new composite front door opens into a welcoming entrance hall, featuring engineered oak flooring that continues seamlessly throughout the property. The light and airy sitting room enjoys a large front-facing window and is centred around a charming log burner with oak mantle and granite hearth, creating a warm and inviting focal point. The well-designed kitchen provides an excellent range of storage and worktop space and includes integrated appliances and a traditional butler sink. This bright, double-aspect room benefits from a door opening directly onto the garden, ideal for indoor-outdoor living. There are two well-proportioned double bedrooms, along with a contemporary bathroom finished in white and fitted with a modern suite and rainfall shower over the bath.

Outside, the pleasant west-facing rear garden is enclosed by hedging and is mainly laid to lawn, complemented by mature planting and a block-paved patio—perfect for afternoon and evening sun. There is direct access to the garage, which is fitted with an up-and-over door and has power and light, and a long driveway providing off-road parking for a couple of vehicles.

Rosemary Avenue is a quiet cul-de-sac of similar bungalows only a short 13 minute walk to the High street. Steyning is a small historic market town in West Sussex, England, set at the foot of the scenic South Downs. It is known for its medieval high street, independent shops, and strong sense of community, as well as Steyning Grammar School, one of the oldest schools in the country. Surrounded by countryside and close to the South Downs Way, Steyning offers easy access to walking and outdoor activities.
