48 Fieldway Crescent, Cowes, PO31 8AJ

£375,000

Offering flexible accommodation that can be configured as either three or four bedrooms, this detached bungalow provides a great deal of versatility and is well worth an internal inspection.

The property has been extended in recent years to create an impressive open-plan living space, incorporating the lounge, dining area and kitchen. The stylish contemporary kitchen is a particular feature, with skylight windows helping to create a bright and welcoming environment.

Further benefits include useful roof space, offering potential as an additional occasional-use area, perhaps providing an ideal hideaway for a teenager, together with off-road parking and gardens.

Situated on a popular residential development in Northwood, on the outskirts of Cowes, the property is conveniently placed for local schools and the amenities of the town.

A versatile home with plenty to offer and definitely one to put on your viewing list!
