Set within a popular residential road close to Weymouth harbour, Newtons Cove and local amenities, this attractive period home is offered with no onward chain and provides generous accommodation arranged over three floors. Retaining a wealth of period features, requiring some modernisation and complemented by a rear garden, the property offers flexible living space well suited to a range of buyers seeking character and convenience in a central coastal location.

The front door opens into an entrance hallway with stairs rising to the upper floors and access to the principal ground floor rooms. The lounge is positioned at the front of the property and features a large window and an original style fireplace, creating a bright and comfortable reception space. To the rear sits the dining room, offering a further well proportioned reception room with a pleasant outlook over the garden. Beyond the dining room is a breakfast room which provides a useful transitional space and leads through to the kitchen. The kitchen is fitted with a range of units and work surfaces, with space for appliances and a door opening out to the rear garden.

The first floor offers three bedrooms and bathroom facilities. The main bedroom is located at the front and benefits from a bay window and generous proportions. Bedroom two sits to the rear and provides a comfortable double room, while bedroom three is positioned centrally. Also on this level is a bathroom and a separate WC, as shown on the floor plan.

Stairs rise to the second floor where an attic room provides additional flexible space, suitable for a variety of uses depending on requirements.

Externally, the rear garden offers a mix of paved and lawned areas with established boundaries, providing an enclosed outdoor space to enjoy. With its period features, spacious layout and sought after location, this character property represents an excellent opportunity, further enhanced by the benefit of no onward chain.
