Rustington is a charming coastal village in West Sussex, situated between Worthing and Littlehampton. Known for its relaxed seaside atmosphere, Rustington offers a blend of traditional village charm and modern amenities. With a bustling high street featuring independent shops, cafés, and restaurants, it provides a welcoming community feel. The village is just a short walk from the beach, making it ideal for coastal walks and outdoor activities.

Rustington benefits from excellent transport links, including a direct train line to London, making it a convenient location for commuters. Its proximity to Worthing and other nearby towns ensures access to a wider range of services while maintaining a peaceful village setting. Whether you're looking for a tranquil seaside retreat or easy connectivity to the capital, Rustington offers the best of both worlds.
