This three-bedroom semi-detached family home offers far more than first meets the eye, with exceptionally versatile living accommodation ideal for families and those who love to entertain. Located in a convenient residential area close to schools, amenities, and commuter links via the Manchester Piccadilly train line, this property presents a rare and exciting opportunity. The ground floor features two generous reception rooms, a modern kitchen diner, a stylish shower room, and a standout bar/entertainment room, perfect for hosting gatherings. A remarkable 35ft conservatory extends the living space further, complete with established grape vines trailing over the dining area, creating a truly unique and atmospheric setting. There is access to multiple storerooms offering excellent potential for further development (subject to the usual consents), as well as a separate rear garden room that could be transformed into a home office, studio, or gym. Upstairs, the property includes three well-proportioned bedrooms and a family bathroom with a contemporary feature suite. A fixed staircase leads to a loft room, ideal for storage or conversion. Externally, the home boasts beautifully established gardens, ample off-road parking, and a 37ft lean-to garage/workshop, ideal for hobbyists or trades. The property also benefits from Solar Panelling.
