A little more information

Altbeg is a traditional detached stone built villa and is located in the pretty, tranquil elevated hamlet of Corriegills, just on the outskirts of Brodick village.

Brodick, is one of the larger villages, being the main ferry link to Ayrshire and the mainland. Brodick enjoys, excellent leisure facilities including tennis and bowling facilities, the 18-hole golf course and those at the Auchrannie Resort and the Ormidale Park. Other village's amenities include a well used community hall, library, bank, shops, hotels, restaurants and bars, garage and fuel station.

Brodick has a primary school with early years classes and the secondary school with UHI Argyll campus is located in Lamlash to which pupils travel daily by bus.

The Isle of Arran is a place where you can find a little bit of everything you could ever want from a Scottish island; an ever-changing coastline, dramatic mountain peaks, sheltered beaches, verdant forests, great cultural festivals and a wealth of tasty local produce.
