"One of my favourite everyday moments is walking the dog from the house to the nearby park. The route winds through quiet, twisting lanes lined with homes where friends and neighbours live, so there's almost always a familiar face to stop and chat with. Then, within a few minutes, you're surrounded by the calm of the park—a peaceful pocket of nature that somehow exists right in the middle of a busy city. It's a simple routine, but it captures everything I've loved about living here."
