PROPERTY SUMMARY

On entering the driveway, the impressive frontage of this detached residence immediately commands attention. Surrounded by mature trees and set back from the road with a substantial front garden, the property offers a rare opportunity to create an exceptional family home. Requiring modernisation throughout, the accommodation is both extensive and versatile, comprising six generous reception areas, six bedrooms, galleried landing and two bathrooms. Providing a good size footprint and wealth of potential offering an excellent framework for transformation, the property presents a unique chance to restore and reimagine a distinguished residence in a countryside setting. Situated within the sought-after conservation village of Catherington, the property enjoys a beautiful semi-rural setting surrounded by agricultural and equestrian countryside. The village is home to the historic All Saints Church, a Grade II listed landmark dating back to the 12th century, renowned for its Hyde Chapel, 14th-century wall paintings and graves of notable naval figures. Despite its surroundings, the property remains conveniently placed not far from Horndean, where a range of amenities can be found including supermarkets, restaurants and excellent road links providing convenient access to the major South Coast cities. To fully appreciate both the unique setting and the exceptional potential this property has to offer, an internal viewing is highly recommended.
