A deceptively spacious 4 bedroom bungalow situated along a private cherry tree lined driveway, tucked away in the heart of this excellent village. This one literally expands as you walk in through the front door and is beautifully presented throughout. Complemented by a generous wrap around garden, double garage with studio above and plenty of parking, this one would suit many different buyers from those looking for a spacious retirement property to a growing family! Solar panels offer green credentials and there is potential to create an annexe subject to planning.
