ABINGDON

Abingdon is a historic market town with a welcoming community and riverside charm. Just six miles from Oxford, it combines excellent transport links with a relaxed pace of life. The Market Place is the social hub, surrounded by shops, cafés, and weekly markets. Green spaces and the Thames offer leisure and walks, while schools are highly regarded. Blending history, culture, and convenience, Abingdon delivers the best of both town and country living.

Nestled halfway across Abingdon Bridge on Nag's Head Island, this pub offers a serene island escape amid the Thames, surrounded by willow trees and tranquil water views.
The Bridge, Abingdon, OX14 3HX

Market Place has been a central meeting point and marketplace for centuries, embodying the town's legacy as a traditional market town. Its origins date back to 1556.

THE WHITE HART

A charming gastropub located in central Abingdon, The White Hart offers a range of real ales and delicious pub food. The menu features classic dishes like burgers, sandwiches, salads, steaks, and roasts. With its warm and welcoming interior, it's a perfect spot for a relaxed evening out.

WHITE HORSE LEISURE CENTRE

Located just a short distance from the town centre, this state-of-the-art leisure centre offers a variety of facilities, including a gym, fitness class studio, 8-lane swimming pool, teaching pool, squash courts, badminton hall, sauna & steam room, and tennis courts. An ideal spot for those seeking comprehensive fitness amenities.

THE BROAD FACE

A contemporary British restaurant offering a modern twist on traditional English cuisine. Known for its sleek and modern interior, it provides a cosy atmosphere with attentive service. Signature dishes include locally sourced beef burgers and fresh seafood platters.

THE MISSING BEAN

An independent coffee shop located in the heart of Abingdon, The Missing Bean serves seasonal house espressos and a rotating selection of single-origin coffees. They also offer freshly baked bread and homemade cakes, including vegan and gluten-free options.

Abingdon's scenic riverside location on the Thames is one of the town's most appealing features. Just a short walk from the town centre, residents can enjoy tranquil riverside walks, cycling routes, and picturesque spots perfect for picnics or watching the wildlife. Abbey Meadow and the Thames Path provide beautiful green corridors, ideal for jogging, boating, or simply relaxing by the water. The riverside also hosts community events and seasonal markets, adding vibrancy to everyday life.

PUBLIC TRANSPORT

Abingdon benefits from excellent transport connections, with easy access to key routes across the region. Nearby Radley station offers regular services to Oxford and London, making commuting simple and convenient. Didcot Parkway serves as a major rail hub, providing fast links to London, Bristol, and the South West. This makes Abingdon an ideal base for both daily travel and longer journeys.
