This is an opportunity to acquire a detached bungalow situated in a most pleasant and popular part of the town. The accommodation offers three bedrooms with gas fired heating and double glazing. Some time ago an extension was added to the kitchen and now provides an ideal dining area or a second sitting room. Externally there is a garage, a summerhouse and a garden shed. There are well stocked gardens to both front and rear with parking available on the driveway. Redruth town centre is within approximately two thirds of a mile passing the very popular Victoria Park on the right hand side. Bus services are available in nearby Southgate Street and a mainline railway station can be found in the town itself with links to London Paddington.
