Property Description

Set within a quiet pocket of BS4, this home opens itself gradually — a place that feels lived-in, loved, and quietly expanded over time. From the moment you step inside, there's a sense of ease: rooms that catch the light just right, spaces that have grown with a family, and a garden that stretches out far beyond what you expect, dissolving into greenery and open sky.

The living room sits at the heart of the home, softened by natural light pouring through the bay window and shaped by books, textures, and the gentle rhythm of everyday life. The kitchen flows behind it — warm, functional, and full of character — with its farmhouse sink, timber cabinetry, and a view through to the conservatory and the garden beyond. It's the kind of kitchen that feels like the centre of things: cooking, conversation, and the quiet hum of the day.

Upstairs, three bedrooms offer flexibility and comfort. The main bedroom is calm and generous, while the second room is bright and welcoming. The third makes an ideal nursery or study, with a soft, elevated outlook. The bathroom is crisp and modern, with clean lines and a simple, timeless finish.

Outside, the garden is a genuine surprise — long, leafy and layered, with pockets of planting, mature trees, and a sense of privacy that deepens as you move further back. It's a space that invites slow mornings, summer evenings, and the kind of outdoor life that evolves with the seasons.
