Mallards Reach

An impressive four-bedroom detached family home in Marshfield, beautifully presented throughout and offering a particularly generous arrangement of living space, gardens, parking and a versatile double garage.

Built in 1998, the house has been thoughtfully maintained and provides a wonderfully comfortable home with an easy sense of space. The entrance hall leads into a substantial dual-aspect living room, where doors open directly onto the rear garden and an electric fireplace creates a natural focal point. Alongside is an excellent kitchen and dining room, designed as a sociable everyday space with a breakfast bar, integrated appliances and further doors onto the garden. Both the living and dining areas benefit from air conditioning, while a ground-floor cloakroom completes the accommodation on this level.

Upstairs are four well-proportioned bedrooms, including a principal bedroom with en-suite shower room. Two further bedrooms have air conditioning, with one also providing fitted mirrored wardrobes, while a separate family bathroom serves the remaining rooms.

Outside, the broad driveway provides parking for several vehicles and includes an EV charging point. The double garage is currently divided to provide traditional garage space alongside a superb office and gym, ideal for home working or exercise. To the rear is a large, enclosed garden with an extensive paved terrace, lawn and established planting, creating a lovely extension of the living space during warmer months.

Marshfield offers an appealing village setting between Cardiff and Newport, with a local shop, pharmacy, community facilities, recreation ground and pub, as well as Marshfield Primary School within the village. The nearby A48 and M4 provide excellent road connections towards Cardiff, Newport and beyond, making the location particularly convenient for commuters while retaining a more relaxed village atmosphere.
