Situated in this ever popular coastal village, number 11 is an end of terrace house offered with no onward chain. It has three bedroomed accommodation together with a generous lounge having a bow window and there is a kitchen/diner. The property is double glazed with some electric heaters and a fireplace in the lounge. Built in a cottage style, it has a mock open joist ceiling in the lounge to add to the effect. The property is well presented and has some new carpets laid. Externally there is a substantial area of garden to the side plus an enclosed rear patio area and a low maintenance front garden. A garage is also provided. Shopping facilities are within a few yards and the beach is perhaps three hundred yards away. Portreath village offers a good amount of facilities and gives access to the north coastal path, Redruth and the A30.
