A beautiful restoration of a Grade II listed building, which is one of several properties tucked away from view in the middle of the conservation area.

Historically, this was the granary building for the local bakery on Broad Street and is built on traditional staddle stones. It has many character features including traditional timber flooring on the ground floor and exposed beams throughout.

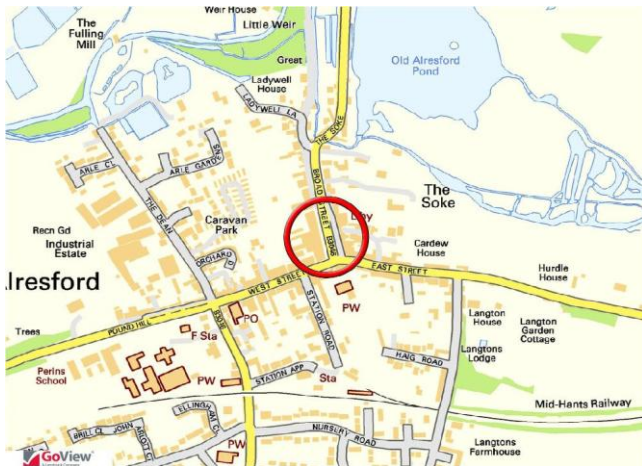

The property has an open plan living area, with country-style kitchen. Adjacent to this is a shower room. Upstairs is the double bedroom.

Being located so centrally will be ideal for anyone looking for an affordable character property close to the shops and facilities to be found in Alresford.

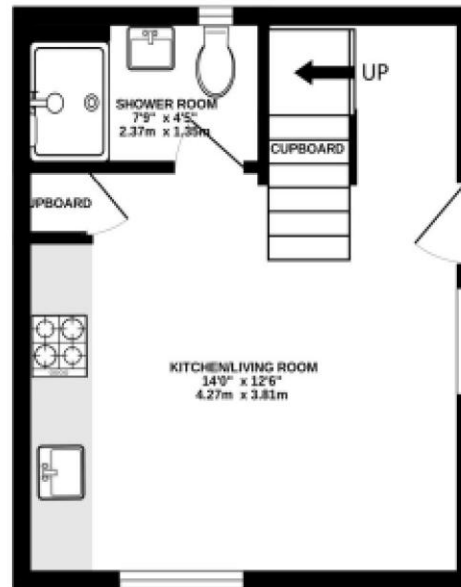

Superfast broadband is available (source: Ofcom). Please check the Ofcom website for mobile signal information <https://www.ofcom.org.uk/mobile-coverage-checker>

Alresford is a beautiful Georgian town known for its variety of independent shops, restaurants and inns located in stunning surroundings on the edge of the South Downs National Park. Attractions include the Watercress steam railway, schools for infant, junior and secondary education, several churches and an active and inclusive community. The cathedral city of Winchester is about 7 miles away and there is easy access to the south coast, the midlands and London via the road network. There is also mainline rail access to London from both Winchester and Alton. Southampton airport is only about half an hour away by car.
