Wandsworth Bridge Road, London

A beautifully renovated 3 bedroom, 2 bathroom maisonette located on the edge of South Park in heart of Fulham. This purpose built property benefits from having its own front door and ample living space, being split over two and a half floors.

There is a larger than average south west facing terrace leading off the large eat-in kitchen with undisturbed south westerly views across South Park - the perfect set-up for entertaining friends and family. The kitchen is bright and spacious with dual aspect windows.

The property has a large separate sitting room on the first floor, ideal as an additional entertaining space. It has been recently renovated to a very high standard, including double glazed windows throughout with original period features have been kept throughout the property to match the period style of the property.

The property is eligible for the Q parking permit, allowing you to access the permitted roads in the area as well as allowing you to park as far away as Parsons Green and its surrounding roads.

The location of the property allows for easy access a host of outstanding nurseries, independent & state schools as well as a wide choice of local bars, restaurants and independent shops as well as the nearby Sainsburys Superstore.
