Accommodation

This individual and adaptable home is approached by a spacious reception hall with a cloakroom/shower room and leads to a split-level living room with impressive vaulted ceilings, an open fireplace and bi-folding doors leading to the terrace with views over the garden. The ground floor accommodation comprises 3 additional rooms, currently configured as a bedroom, study and dining room,. The breakfast room has French doors opening to a rear courtyard and the dual aspect kitchen is fitted with hand painted Shaker style cabinets with appliance space and complimented by a separate utility room. Upstairs, the impressive 22ft principal bedroom has a balcony and served by a stunning shower room. The annexed accommodation has its own entrance which opens to an L-shaped sitting room with access to a separate kitchen fitted with a good range of cabinets. Stairs lead from the sitting room to the first floor with two bedrooms and a bathroom.

Annexed accommodation

Outside

The property occupies a secluded plot in excess of a third of an acre and is approached by a horseshoe or 'in out' driveway with ample parking and this leads to a single garage. The principal south facing gardens are to the right hand side of the main house, with two terraced patios and the whole enjoys a secluded outlook and is mainly laid to lawn. The annexe has its own secluded courtyard to the left hand side of the plot and the breakfast room has a secluded courtyard with a barbeque and seating.

Location

The property is located in a private driveway with easy access to green spaces including Barossa Nature Reserve. Camberley is ideally situated 35 miles southwest of central London on the A30 and within easy access of junctions 3 and 4 of the M3 motorway. There are regular trains from Camberley to London and fast trains from Farnborough to Waterloo (38 minutes). Camberley offers a good variety of high street retailers and The Atrium complex has a nine-screen cinema, bowling alley, health & fitness club, cafés and restaurants. Camberley Heath Golf Course offers excellent facilities along with Camberley Cricket Club and the Camberley Theatre. There is a wide range of well-respected schools in both the state and private sectors.
