Description

Victorian end of terrace home located just a short walk from Netham Park and Church Road. This lovely home has been much improved by its current owners to create an open sociable living home.

The ground floors offers a large living and dining space which opens up into a bright extended stylish kitchen with bifold doors to the garden. The first floor offers a full width main bedroom to the front and a second double to the rear along with a great size bathroom with velux window. The loft room can be accessed by a fitted ladder step which provides easy access storage.

Outside to the rear is a lovely south-west facing garden with a raised decked seating area, lawn and wild garden and a larger than average workshop, ideal as a hobby room or storage.
