Set in the sought-after Royal Quay development alongside the Grand Union Canal, this substantial five-bedroom townhouse offers over 2,380 sq ft of versatile living across four floors. Perfect for families or professionals, the home features an impressive ground-floor kitchen/dining area and a light-filled sitting room with direct access to a private 30ft garden. The flexible lower ground floor includes a guest bedroom with an en-suite, a utility room, and internal access to an integral garage.

The upper levels house four further bedrooms, including a generous first-floor en-suite bedroom, a modern family bathroom, and an exceptional top-floor principal suite complete with a dedicated dressing room and a stylish en-suite. Located near Harefield Marina, residents enjoy tranquil waterside living, local village amenities, and convenient transport links into Central London via nearby Uxbridge.
