Set out over three spacious floors the property boasts it's own street entrance, with the accommodation comprising a generous living room with smart modern kitchen incorporating marble work-tops and integrated appliances, bathed in light from twin-aspect windows, and featuring engineered oak flooring with under-floor heating. French doors open to a secluded private garden which offers both a tranquil sanctuary and a great place for alfresco dining. There is also a handy utility room on this level. Moving up to the split-level first floor, a well-appointed family bathroom sits next to two beautiful double bedrooms one with a vaulted roof. On the top floor, the principal room also benefits from a vaulted ceiling, and adjacent stylish shower room.
