

4 School Hill, Middleton, LE16 8YZ

£475,000

Rarely does a property of such unique charm and character come to the market as this beautiful cottage, originally three separate dwellings, now formed in to one spacious detached home. The property sits on a pretty little winding road in the picturesque village of Middleton with stunning country views and conveniently located between the towns of Market Harborough and Corby with their vast range of amenities and stations with direct links to London. Its beautifully presented accommodation is arranged in a fantastic upside-down manor in order to make the most of the breath-taking Welland Valley views and in brief to the ground floor comprises; entrance hall, three bedrooms, a stunning en-suite bathroom, shower room and study. To the first floor there's a lounge, dining room, sitting room and kitchen. Outside the property benefits from two separate driveways to provide off road parking for at least five cars, a pretty cottage rear garden, a utility/laundry room, office and garden store. This property is a wonderfully unique opportunity and Adams & Jones must insist on a viewing in person for it to be appreciated fully.

Middleton Village

Middleton is a village and civil parish in North Northamptonshire close to the county boundary with Leicestershire. It is just to the west of Corby Town Centre with around 140 shops and stores, leisure facilities and eateries.

To the other direction, it is approximately 15 minutes drive to Market Harborough market town.

Middleton has villages of Cottingham and East Carlton as neighbours.

The village has a community shop, village hall and primary school.

It is a 10/15 minute drive to Corby, Kettering and Market Harborough railway stations, all of which have direct lines into St Pancras Station, London.

The A14 – connecting to the A1/M1 and M6, is just a 15 minute drive away.

Middleton is part of the Welland Valley and a short walk to East Carlton Park via the Jurassic Way pathway. The park has 102 acres of park and woodland and is a favourite with dog walkers and families, having well established trees, a playpark, cafe and cricket club.
